

I am opposed to any change to the to the Indiana Telephone Privacy Law. Since this law became effective we have not been bothered by numerous unwanted calls during our dinner hour and later in the evening. My wife and I are both in our seventies and do not appreciate being bothered by nuicance phone calls.